A beautiful dream became a nightmare
Check-in time was over
I thought I was right, they said I was wrong
Check-in time was over

Boarding pass to nowhere, boarding pass to the evidence
Boarding pass to hell, boarding pass...

I paid the right dime
I've got the right time
Boarding pass to nowhere land
I thought I did right
To get the right flight
Check-in time got out of hand

Boarding pass to nowhere, boarding pass to the evidence
Boarding pass to hell, boarding pass...

Should I smile or should I cry ?
How does it get any better than this ?
Should I shout or should I fight ?
How does it get any better than that ?

Solo

What else is possible ? What else is possible ? What else is possible ?

Boarding Pass to nowhere, boarding pass to the evidence
Boarding pass to hell, boarding pass

Should I try or should I fly ?
How does it get any better than this ?
Should I leave or should I believe ?
How does it get any better than that ?

Boarding pass to nowhere
Boarding pass
Boarding pass to resilience
