

Little child

Words and Music by John Philipps © 1983
Thanks to ME, Heidi and Jean-Jacques and Loïse

I am and I will stay a little child
No need for no one to say "you're still so young..."
Which soul has a lively smile ?
My eyes, they wanna shine
So when I see us all messing around
I wanna shout

Mhhhhhhhhh
Mother, why did you go ?
Gipsy woman, it's time to sing
"Sorry, but I was so cold
Life is a strange deal
But son, you have to walk and
It's time to shout"

Mhhhhhhhhh, I am and I will stay a little child
Solo

Father, where did you go ?
So strong, your power of life
But your truth was a strange deal
Facing the light, it was hard to stare
So when I heard you coming home
I had to shout

People, no need to say "If I were young"
You are and you will stay a little child
You are and have to be
The one whom you always dreamt about
And this little voice which somehow shouts "It's time to be !"

People, no need to say "If I were young"
You are and you will stay a little child
You are and have to be
The one whom you always dreamt about
And this little voice which somehow shouts : "It's time to be !"
And this little voice which somehow shouts : "It's time to be !"
And this little voice which somehow shouts : "It's time to be !"